This memorial was created in honor of Gerald "Jerry" Baker of East Wenatchee, Washington. Gerald was born on May 9, 1944 in Seattle and passed on September 24, 2015. Jerry grew up in West Seattle eventually becoming a stand out athlete for West Seattle High School. Following graduation, he attended Washington State University receiving scholarships for both football and baseball. He then continued his pitching career with a New York Yankee farm team in Sarasota, Florida. Following his baseball career, he was hired as a pilot for Northwest Airlines. Jerry flew for NWA for 38 years reaching the pinnacle of his aviation career as a 747-200 captain. In retirement, he enjoyed boating, playing softball, golfing and spending time with those he loved. One of his favorite places on earth was Lake Chelan, WA. Jerry is survived by his wife Janet, son Scott Baker (Kathy) of Poulsbo, daughter Kelly Switzer (Steve) of Anacortes, step daughter Jennifer (Inshaw
