

---

ANDRES MARRERO DEL CAMPO

DEL CAMPO, ANDRES MARRERO, originally born in Havana, Cuba, an actor, producer, professional baseball player, movie critic, best known in Miami for his work as the owner of Valentino Cinema (1993-2007), a local movie theater with Spanish-subtitled films, has passed away peacefully today in his Hialeah home surrounded by his family. He was an icon that was well loved and respected by the Latin community. His sense of humor and dynamic personality will be missed. He is survived by his children, Andrew Marrero and Dania Margarita Marrero; his grandchildren, Priscilla Marrero, Andrew Marrero Jr., Pedro Cruz, Isabel Cruz, Lizbeth Carasana and Nathaniel Marrero; and his great-grandchildren Elijah Marino and Bella Cruz. Memorial Services will be held on Friday, December 30, 2016 Service begins at 6:00pm. Caballero Rivero Funeral 373 West 9 Street Hialeah, Florida 33010. The Burial Ceremony will be held on Saturday, December 31, 2016 Ceremony begins at 2:00pm. Southern Memorial Park 15000 West Dixie Hwy Miami, Florida 33181.

Funeral Home*Caballero Rivero Hialeah

373 W 9TH ST 377 Hialeah, FL 33010
(305) 888-6792

Published in the Miami Herald on Jan. 6, 2017

---