

Anderson Dies; Once Pitched For Cleveland

Harry L. (Andy) Anderson, 72, of 215 East Chestnut St., died Tuesday in an Asheville hospital after a brief illness.

Born in Mars Hill and an Asheville resident since 1948, he was a son of the late William C. and Carrie Jones Anderson and the husband of the late Ruth Spalding Anderson, who died in 1956. He attended Mars Hill College, had been an employe of the U. S. Forest Service for eight years and in 1967 retired with 23 years with Champion Paper and Fiber Co., where he had served as supervisor of pulp wood operations and at retirement was supervisor of equipment services. From 1931 to 1934 he was a pitcher with the Cleveland Indians and was a member of the Asheville Country Club.

Surviving are a half brother, W. M. Jones of Arden; two sisters, Mrs. Betty Edwards of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Mary A. Hunter of Mars Hill; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday in Morris Funeral Chapel. The Rev. John M. Hawn will officiate. Burial will be in Mars Hill Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Harry Anderson obit

Clipped By:

jackmo77

Sun, Jul 30, 2017