

Former Councilman Succumbs At Oak Hill

OAK HILL— A heart attack yesterday claimed the life of a retired Virginian Railway employee.

He was William Franklin (Frank) Titlow of Oak Hill, a former member of the Oak Hill City Council for 14 years.

Titlow, 73, died in Oak Hill Hospital following the seizure suffered earlier at his home. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, the Eastern Star and the Brotherhood of Trainmen.

A former professional baseball player, Titlow was with the Virginia league at Winston-Salem, N. C., and Greensboro. He also played in the White Oak league at Scarbro.

In his later years, he was active in Little League management.

Surviving are his wife, Alice; six brothers, Charles, John and Ray of Charleston, Jake of Oak Hill, Fred of Charlotte, N. C., and Aubrey of Mount Hope, and two sisters, Mrs. M. L. Parker of Mount Hope and Mrs. L. C. McMillion of Charleston.

Services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in Oak Hill Baptist Church by the Revs. Randolph Johnson and C. S. Donnally. Burial will be in Highlawn Memorial Park with graveside services by the Oak Hill Masonic Lodge.

The body is at Tyree Funeral Home here.

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Wed, May 13, 2015