Durham – Stephen Chester Jasinski, 67, died peacefully January 8, 2018 at Frisbie Memorial Hospital after a long and courageous battle with Alzheimer's disease. He lived in Durham for 28 years, most recently at Harmony Homes by the Bay.

Born December 26, 1950 in Chicopee, MA, he was the son of Chester and Mary (Chwalek) Jasinski.

Steve was an exceptional baseball and basketball player throughout high school at Chicopee Comprehensive, which led to his being drafted as a pitcher by the New York Mets. Instead, he chose to attend Colby College, where he met his wife Barb and continued to excel as an athlete. Steve cherished the lifelong friendships he made as a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. After Colby he received his MBA from Dartmouth College.

Steve had a successful consulting business following years of working in finance at the corporate level. He enjoyed spending time with his family on his sailboat, hiking the White Mountains, playing golf, and watching his beloved Red Sox.

Steve was predeceased by his parents and mother-in-law Charlotte (Wing) Plummer.

Steve is survived by his wife of 43 years, Barbara (Plummer) Jasinski; three children, Sarah, David, Emily and Emily's fiancé Matthew Beaudoin; his brothers, Paul Jasinski and wife Alexandra of Leverett, MA and Richard Jasinski and wife Carol of Wolfeboro; his father-in-law, John Plummer, of Tucson, AZ; his brother-in-law Henry Plummer and wife Patty of Urbana, IL; as well as many cherished nieces and nephews.
