Charles Stanley Mumford died at home on Sunday, November 27 in Gap, PA. Charlie was born on February 10, 1945 in Camden, NJ to Stanley and Elizabeth Mumford. He graduated from Ocean City High School in 1963. He married Irene King, his soul mate and devoted wife in 1973. Charlie was a skilled baseball pitcher for the Tampa Tarpons minor league team. After baseball, he followed in his father's footsteps by serving honorably in the US Navy for 6 years. Charlie continued his service as a professional fire fighter for 13 years in Ocean City, NJ. He displayed his mechanical skills repairing small tools and maintaining industrial equipment for multiple Pennsylvania companies and as a small business owner. Charlie was an avid fisherman, outdoors man and loved nature. He loved giving friends, family, and the occasional curious waitress his hand forged jewelry and homemade canes. Giving gave him great joy. Charlie is survived by his wife Irene, daughter Susan, and son Jon (Jessica Mayne). Family and friends are welcome to share their memories during our celebration of Charlie's life at 1:00pm on December 7th at Chantry Place, 15 N Bridge Street, Christiana, PA.
