Long-time Gazette Employee, Church Leader Dies at 69

James William Warren Sr., aged 69, of 1104 West Thirty-third Street, the custodial supervisor of the Arkansas Gazette for more than 45 years, died Sunday morning.

Mr. Warren was a lay leader in the Union AME Church, where he was a member for many years. He was also a well-known bar caterer and a quiet benefactor to many Little Rock students.

He was born May 21, 1889, at Crossett, son of the late Abraham and Anna L. Warren. At that time, Crossett was a company town and Mr. Warren's father was the administrator of all Negro housing in the town. On October 23, 1919, Mr. Warren married Miss Annie Mabel Cotton of Hot Springs, and in 1923, the couple moved to Little Rock, where Mr. Warren worked for the Rock Island Lines. He stayed with the railroad only a short time, however, and on September 1, 1923, he joined the Gazette, where he remained until his retirement April 10, 1968.

He was instrumental in helping to finance the construction of the present Union AME sanctuary at Wright Avenue and Pulaski Street, and was a steward and a trustee of the church. He also was a Sunday School class leader and was the president of the church's Progressive Club for the last 25 years. He won the annual "Mr. Union" competition in the church several times for his fund-raising activities.

During his career at the Gazette, Mr. Warren helped countless young men finance their educations by hiring them for his custodial staff. He also obtained jobs for students at other businesses and made personal loans to many young persons. In his sideline as a bar caterer, Mr. Warren presided at public and private parties all over Little Rock. As a result, he numbered many of the city's business and social leaders among his friends. For many years, he was the official bar caterer for the annual Little Rock Chamber of Commerce goodwill tour when the trip was made by rail. When the Chamber tour was converted to an air trip several years ago, Mr. Warren was invited to continue as bar caterer or to come along as a guest of the Chamber. He declined, citing his health and a diffidence toward air travel.

Mr. Warren was hospitalized for a lengthy period in March 1968, and shortly after his release from the hospital he officially retired. He continued some of his activities at the newspaper, however, among them the catering of a late-night supper for members of the Gazette news staff on election nights. He visited the offices of the Gazette occasionally after his retirement, visiting with his old friends and introducing himself to new staff members.

Mr. Warren had seen most of the Gazette oldtimers at their best — and worst — and he often regaled younger staff members with accounts of earlier days at the paper. In addition to his work in the church and at the Gazette, Mr. Warren was an active member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He was a veteran of World War I.

Survivors include his wife; a son, James W. Warren Jr. of Little Rock; three daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Davenport of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Lula Dodson of San Francisco; a sister, Mrs. Anna Lester Cooper of San Francisco, 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Funeral will be at 3 p.m. Thursday at Union AME Church by Rev. Cecil W. Cone. Pallbearers will be William Whitfield, John Terry, David Clayborne, Cleveland Mason, Thomas Nolan Jr. and Fred Webb. Honorary pallbearers will be Dr. W. R. Springer, Willie Green, J. S. Mott, Henry Bryant, Willie Spears, Willie Frost and trustees and stewards of the Union AME Church. Burial will be at Haven of Rest Cemetery by Dubisson Undertaking Company.

NEW PLAN PAYS MORE OF YOUR DOCTOR BILLS

When You Are Hospitalized, Blue Cross pays for hospital services your doctor orders. The services you need are the services you get — regardless of cost. When you have Blue Cross you are not tied to a fixed dollar allowance that shrinks in value as costs go up!

NEW BLUE SHIELD PLAN PAYS MORE OF YOUR DOCTOR BILLS

Until now, Blue Shield physician care payments have been based on fixed dollar allowances. With the cooperation of physicians throughout Arkansas, we now offer plans that pay your doctor's "usual, customary and reasonable" charges. What this means to you is that Blue Shield will pay the full amount of covered doctor bills, so long as the charges fall within the usual, customary and reasonable price range for like services in the area where the service is performed.

This new Blue Shield Plan includes payment for many physician services never covered before, including:

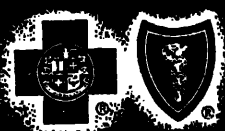

- Diagnostic X-Ray
- Medical visits in your home
- Medical consultations
- Diagnostic Lab
- Medical visits in Doctor's office
- Out-patient psychiatric care

YOU CAN AFFORD TO JOIN!

To make the New Blue Shield Plan available to the greatest number of Arkansans, we offer it in several forms. FULL SERVICE PLANS are available. PARTIAL SERVICE PLANS are available. You can choose the plan — and the cost — that best fits your need AND YOUR BUDGET. And because it gives you further protection against rising health care costs, you can scarcely afford to be without it!
