
James Boring(1938 - 2016)

James Boring

Asheville - James D. Boring, 78, passed away on October 3, 2016 at Brookdale Walden Ridge in Asheville.

Mr. Boring was born on May 30, 1938 in Elizabethton, Tennessee to the late James Benjamin Boring and Pearl Catherine Pruner. After graduating from Mississippi State University, he played minor league baseball for the Philadelphia Phillies. He worked in the transportation industry for many years while being an avid outdoorsman.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Carolyn McCraney Boring who died in April of this year. As well as, a brother Michael Boring of Johnson City, Tennessee. He is survived by three daughters, Melissa Boring of Portland Oregon, Cathy Hoosier (Kerry) of Tryon, N.C and Susan Jastram (Robert) of Frankfurt, Germany. Additionally, he is survived by five grandchildren Sarah Jastram, Hannah Jastram, Kyle Jastram, Katie Hoosier and Emma Hoosier.

Groce Funeral Home at Lake Julian is assisting the family and a memorial guest register is available online at www.grocefuneralhome.com. A private family memorial service will be held at a later date.

Funeral Home

Groce Funeral Home Lake Julian

72 Long Shoals Rd Arden, NC 28704
(828) 687-3530

Published in the Asheville Citizen-Times on Oct. 9, 2016
