Timothy Wellington Hill Sr.

71, passed peacefully December 25, 2015. He was the husband of Genevieve Hill. They shared 48 years of marriage. Born August 5, 1944, in Washington D.C., he was the son of Tony and Ruth Hill. He held both B.S. and M.A. degrees from George Washington University. He served as the Head Baseball Coach at State College of Florida for 31 years, was a 2005 NJCAA Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, and remains the all-time leader in career wins by a Florida junior college head coach. More than his winning philosophy and vast accolades accumulated on the ballfield, he leaves a legacy as a man who exuded respect, wisdom, strength, discipline, compassion, devotion, and a profound love for Jesus, his family, and baseball. He is survived by his wife Genny; children Tim Hill II, Kimberly Martin, and Whitney Corbeil; daughter-in-law Belinda; and sons-in-law Bill Martin and Al Corbeil; grandchildren Timmer and Leigha Hill; Will, Madison, Adam, Grady, and Payton Martin; and Azarias and Samson Corbeil; and siblings Kay Hewitt and Dennis Hill. A celebration of his life will be held at his baseball home, State College of Florida's Robert C. Wynn Field, at 11a.m. Wednesday, January 6, 2016, on what would have been he and his wife's 49th wedding anniversary. A reception at the baseball field will follow. He will be laid to rest at Gillette Cemetery. Brown & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory 43rd Street Chapel in charge of arrangements. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the SCF Baseball Office in memory of Coach Hill, Sr. Condolences www.brownsandsonsfuneral.com.
