

Death Claims Ex-Ball Player

Victor N. St. Martin, 77, 35 E. Ship Rd., Baltimore, a one-time heavy-hitting minor league baseball player, died Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore, following a brief illness.

St. Martin, whose widow is the former Blanche Kemper of Adams County, played with Hanover in the Blue Ridge League. As a pitcher, first baseman and outfielder, he also played in the New York-Pennsylvania, Eastern Shore, Virginia, and New York-New Jersey Leagues.

Following his retirement as an active player he was a pipe fitter and repairman for the Bethlehem Steel Corp., Baltimore, for nearly 40 years.

He was a native of Sorel, Quebec.

In addition to his widow he is survived by a son, Victor H., Dundalk, Md.; four grandchildren; three brothers, Arpheme, Baltimore; George, Villa Marie, Quebec, and Lucien, Phoenix, Ariz.; two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Pelletier, Northbridge, Mass., and Mrs. Arcella O'Keefe, Kirkland Lake, Ontario.

A Requiem Mass will be held Friday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Rita's Catholic Church, Dundalk.
