Obituary

Kenneth Temple, 74, of Chester, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, May 22, 2016. He was preceded in death by his parents, Kenneth and Bessie Temple. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Nancy Camp Temple; daughter, Beth Arbogast and her husband, Shawn; grandchildren, Christopher, Zachary, Megan and Stephanie Doggett and Sammie Arbogast; sister, Pat Wood and her husband, John; brother, Alan Temple and his wife, Betsy; and a beloved nephew, Adam Wood. Ken graduated from Hermitage High. He played professional baseball AA, as a pitcher for the Baltimore Orioles. He attended William and Mary and graduated from VCU. He worked for Philip Morris as a supervisor until he retired. Then he fulfilled his dream of becoming a long distance truck driver and ended up being the truck driver teacher and trainer for Great Coastal. He got his masters in Bible theology and ministered to teenagers in the prisons and everyone he met. Ken was an avid hunter and fisherman. Most of all, he loved his family. A celebration of his life will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday, May 27, 2016 at Iron Bridge Baptist Church. In lieu of flowers the family requests memorial contributions be made to Iron Bridge Baptist Church, 10900 Iron Bridge Rd, Chester, VA 23831.
