WILLIAM G. KILLINGER

William G. Killinger, Jr., age 87, died on Thursday, October 1, 2015 at Riddle Hospital in Media, PA. He was born in Harrisburg, PA to the late Coach W. Glenn Killinger and Wilda (Holtzworth) Killinger. Bill was an all around athlete and enjoyed playing sports from a young age. One of his most memorable childhood experiences was serving as a batboy for the Pre-Flight School Cloudbusters at Chapel Hill, NC 1942-1943 while a student at Chapel Hill High School. After graduating from The Hill School in Camp Hill, PA, in June 1946, he attended Lafayette College where he excelled in basketball and baseball. He graduated in 1950 and was named a Division 1 All-American third baseman by the American Baseball Coaches Association. He later played for the St. Louis Cardinals' minor league team, the Allentown Cardinals. Bill had a 5-year minor league career from 1950-1955. He married Karol Marie Abboud in November 1953.

A longtime resident of Wilmington, DE, Bill was an employee of Delaware Trust Co. for 32 years and played softball with the company's team. He enjoyed coin collecting, bridge, squash, golf, and attending
