

Headlines

Columns

Sections

Sports Sinaloa

The expelotero Saúl Montoya dies He reported that he ceased to exist this Wednesday after suffering a heart attack

Photographer: Armando Baldenebro

21 / MAR / 2018 By Armando Baldenebro

Los Mochis, Sin.- Former Mochican player Saúl Montoya Beltrán, died on Wednesday in this sugarcane city at 66 years of age, after suffering a heart attack.

This is reported by sources close to the exlanzador of what are currently the Naranjeros de Hermosillo and Cañeros de Los Mochis.

In addition, in the summer ball, the left-handed Saul Montoya played with the Red Devils of Mexico, Pirates of Campeche, Tampico Aligned, Tigers of Mexico, Dorados de Chihuahua, Braves and Cubs of León, this from 1969 to 1980.

Saúl Montoya is remembered for being a dominant reliever of what baseball currently knows as situational.

Even Saul Montoya could claim to have a champion ring with the Hermosillo Naranjeros at the time of Hector Espino, Angel Macias, Alejandro Robles, Lauro Villalobos, Maximino Leon and more.

The lefty in recent times figured as a coach and manager of children's leagues in Ahome.

Born in Campo 35 on October 15, 1951, Saúl Montoya ceased to exist this Wednesday, March 21, 2018.

Rest in peace