
James Neal McGee(1933 - 2015)

James Neal McGee

Nov. 12, 1933 - Dec. 4, 2015

Resident of Yuba City

James (Bud) Neal McGee, passed away on Dec. 4, 2015 in the morning at his home, in Yuba City. Born on Nov. 12, 1933 in Exeter, CA, he was the son of Clint and Mabel McGee. He grew up loving and playing baseball, traveling to many major cities, and was even drafted to the major league Brooklyn Dodgers. After baseball he made a career with PG&E that would last 42 years. With his junior high girlfriend and best friend he married Joecille A. Ludwig in 1953 in Spring Falls, Idaho while play ball for a minor league team. They had two children together and were living their dream in Pinole CA. Later transferring north to Yuba City with P.G. & E. , he made his final home where he would then raise his grandchildren, retire, and spend the rest of his years. He enjoyed of course baseball, along with golf, coffee with the guys, and visiting with family and friends. He loved and adored his family, and we are so proud of him and the wonderful example of a good man he was to us all. He was the most generous, selfless, hardworking, and passionate man we knew. An inspiration of how we should all live and love one another. We will forever love him, miss him and carry his spirit in our hearts. He was preceded in life by his wife, Joecille. He leaves behind two children, David, (wife Paula), Cherie. He also leaves behind four loving grandchildren, Ryan, Jayme, Ashley, and Haley, and three great grandchildren, Naleia, Jaylen, and Nevaeh. Services will be held on Thurs., Dec. 17th, at 11 am. at Wilson & Kratzer Chapel at 455 24th St., Richmond, CA. He will be laid to rest at Sunset View Cemetery at 101 Colusa Ave., El Cerrito, CA next to his wife, sister, and parents.

View the online memorial for James Neal McGee

Funeral HomeWilson & Kratzer Civic Center Chapel

455 24th St. Richmond, CA 94804

510-232-4383

Published in Contra Costa Times on Dec. 13, 2015
