Philip "Skipper" Matregrano, age 90 of Norwalk and husband for 52 years of the late Agnes Barbara Matregrano, died peacefully at Wilton Meadows on Saturday, April 11. Born in Harlem, NY, he was the son of the late Eugene and Mary Fumo Matregrano and had lived in Norwalk for most of his life. He was a WW II veteran and a Norwalk Firefighter for 20 years. Skipper was a local baseball player in the 40's and voted MVP in 1948 on the city champion Norwalk Tire baseball team. He also played one season for the NY Canadian-American minor league in 1947. Skipper went on to become a well-known baseball coach in the 70's and 80's and was a high school basketball official in the late 60's and early 70's. He was an avid animal lover.

Survivors include a son, Gary Matregrano and his wife Sharon, a daughter Janice Matregrano, several nieces and nephews and two fur-grandchildren, Puffy and Pepper (AKA Peppa-kitty). He was also predeceased by his daughter Jacklin Matregrano and his brother James.

No formal service will be held. The Skipper would rather you go out and enjoy a baseball game. Donations in his name may be made to his favorite rescue organization, Pet Protectors, Inc., 2490 Black Rock Tnpk, #453, Fairfield, CT, 06824 (www.petprotectorsrescue.org).
