
George Woodrow Kinnamon

George Woodrow Kinnamon CHARLOTTE, NC - George Woodrow Kinnamon, 87, of Charlotte, NC, formerly of Summerville, SC, passed peacefully at home on December 27, 2014. Mr. Kinnamon was born on October 25, 1927 to Bessie and Clifford Kinnamon of Etowah, TN. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Tennessee and his masters of divinity from the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbia, SC. He was a player/manager for the Pittsburgh Pirates organization under Branch Rickey. Later, he created the Gamecock Baseball Camp for boys in Sumter, SC that ran for sixteen summers. He married Saloma (Pat) Shealy on December 28, 1952 in Summerville, SC. They moved to Winter Park, FL, where he served as Pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church. After moving to Fort Mill, SC in 1972, he started the Church of Today at Tega Cay. During that time, he also implemented managerial development programs for several companies including GE and Milliken. His hobbies included ping pong, tennis, playing harmonica, and writing. He was predeceased by his wife, Saloma (Pat) Kinnamon in August, 2014. He is survived by his daughters, Kamera Hutchens, Karyn Draper, Susan Kinnamon-Brock; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Mr. Kinnamon will be memorialized in a private service in Summerville SC on February 15, 2014. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Alzheimer's Foundation. Visit our guestbook at www.legacy.com/obituaries/charleston

Published in Charleston Post & Courier on Jan. 18, 2015
