Joe E. Johnson

(August 10, 1984 - July 07, 2015)

Joseph Elman “Joe” Johnson, 30, of Summerville, SC, a real estate appraiser for Patriot Appraisals, died Tuesday morning in Berkeley County.

His memorial service will be 4:00 PM Saturday afternoon, July 11, 2015, in the First Baptist Church, Moncks Corner, directed by Dial-Murray Funeral Home, Moncks Corner. The family will receive friends at the CHURCH from 2:00 PM until the hour of service on Saturday. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to the First Baptist Church, 112 E Main St., Moncks Corner, SC 29461, to the American Cancer Society, 5900 Core Rd., Ste. 504, N. Charleston, SC 29406, or to the Salvation Army, P. O. Box 1391, Moncks Corner, SC 29461.

Joe was born August 10, 1984, in Charleston, SC, a son of Michael E. Johnson and Lisa Turchin Johnson. He was a graduate of Berkeley High School, where he was a former “All Region” pitcher for the baseball team. He attended The Citadel and played baseball, as his father did before him, and then went on to Louisburg College from which he received his associate’s degree and was an “All Conference” pitcher. After graduation, Joe was drafted by the Atlanta Braves, and was still playing baseball in a local men’s league.

He was also a licensed pilot and was currently logging hours to become a commercial pilot while working as a member of the ground crew for Delta Airlines. Joe loved his RC model planes and working out, but most of all, he loved his daughter and spending time with her.

Surviving are, his daughter, Jolie Johnson of Greenville; his mother of Pinopolis; a brother, Patrick M. Johnson and his wife, Caitlin, of Beaufort; and a nephew, Luther Joseph Michael Johnson, soon to be born.
