

John C. Ferguson

Posted: Saturday, October 3, 2015 1:43 am

John C. Ferguson of Fairfield Glade, Tenn. died peacefully at home on Friday, Sept. 18, 2015.

He was born July 4, 1942 in Passaic, N.J. and was raised in Clifton, N.J., where he was a two-time All-State athlete in baseball.

John attended East Stroudsburg University, where he received a bachelor's degree in Health Science in 1964 and a master's degree in 1972. While there, John was on the President's Athletic Council and served as Senior class president. He also participated in basketball and baseball. His name can be found in the 1964 edition of 'Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities'.

Upon graduation, John went on to play professional baseball with the Detroit Tigers organization.

He taught for five years in the Livingston, N.J. school system and for 26 years taught at Bucks County Community College, where he helped to build and direct the college's wellness program.

John is survived by his wife of 52 years, Dorothy; two sons, Michael Scott and his wife, Marcee Reifinger Ferguson, and Robert Sean and his wife, Karen Lewis Ferguson; two grandchildren, Tyler Scott and Emma Lynn Ferguson; a sister, Sandra Woods; a sister-in-law, Marcia; and a brother-in-law, Sandy Formick.

John will be buried at the St. John Neumann Cemetery in Chalfont, Pa. Hood Funeral Home & Crematory, Crossville, Tenn.