*Brett,
We will always remember your Dad as the gentle man he was. The image of him walking Moose wearing his Boston Red Sox cap and a big grin is forever imprinted in our minds. He was a perfect neighbor and a joy to know. Our hearts hurt for you.

I will always remember Brian's gentle nature, good humor and infectious grin. Goodbye Cousin, you're in the Big Leagues now. You followed your dream, and a man cannot live his life any better than that.
