Worcester Telegram & Gazette (MA) - Saturday, May 31, 2003

MILFORD -- Thomas J. "The Captain" Tominsky Sr., 82, of 54 Water St., died Friday, May 30, in Milford-Whitinsville Regional Hospital.

He leaves his wife of 54 years, Esther M. (Ambrogi) Tominsky; two sons, Thomas J. Tominsky Jr. of Palm Spring, Calif., and Richard Tominsky of Boston; a daughter, Barbara Tominsky of Milford; a sister, Anna Bonetti of Milford; nephews and nieces. Two brothers, Joseph and Adam Tominsky, and a sister, Mary Arnold, predeceased him. He was born in Milford, son of Kostanti and Anna (Hirshfelt) Tominsky, and graduated from Milford High School in 1938. He attended Boston University and was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II, serving in Newfoundland with the Army Engineers and Search and Rescue.

Mr. Tominsky was a Milford police officer during the 1950s. He retired in 1974 after 25 years as a postal worker for the Milford Post Office. He was the tenth mayor of the Prospects Heights Association, Polish contingent, 1970 to 1971, and an umpire for the Pioneer League Triple A Baseball in Salt Lake City and Pocatello, Idaho. He also won many awards for decorating his house at Halloween and Christmas.

The funeral will be held at 9 a.m. Tuesday, June 3, from Consigli-Ruggerio Funeral Home, 46 Water St., with a Mass at 10 a.m. in St. Mary's of the Assumption Church, Winter Street. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery. Calling hours are 5 to 8 p.m. Monday, June 2, in the funeral home.
