

DEATHS

Malone Sanders

Funeral services for Malone (Bones) Sanders, 43, a former professional baseball player and ex-manager of the defunct Texas City Texans, will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Emken-Linton chapel in Texas City. The Rev. J. R. Tomlinson will officiate. Burial will be in Corsicana Sunday by Corley funeral home.

Mr. Sanders died Friday in a Texas City hospital after suffering a heart attack.

The ball player once played for the San Francisco Seals and was one time manager of the Brooklyn Dodger farm club in Hazard, Ky.

He was a member of the Texas City First Baptist church, the Af&AM Masonic lodge 118 in Texas City and the El Mina Shrine in Galveston.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Anita Sanders; two daughters, Darlene and Manda Sue, all of Texas City; three sisters, Mrs. Earl Powell, Mrs. Jewell Kennedy and Mrs. Margie Smith, all of Corsicana, Tex.

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Wed, May 27, 2015