Todd "T.O." Oakes

MAY 26, 2016 BY BALLARD SUNDER FUNERAL HOME

37 CONDOLENCES

Todd "T.O." Oakes, of Jordan, passed away peacefully in his home on Thursday, May 26, 2016 at the age of 55. Todd held his cross in his hands and was surrounded by his family as he went home to be with the Lord. A gathering of family and friends is Monday, May 30, 2016 from 3:00 – 7:00 PM at Hope Lutheran Church in Jordan. A Celebration of Life Service is Tuesday, May 31, 2016 at 11:00 AM with visitation from 9:30 – 11:00 AM at Hope Lutheran Church in Jordan. Pastor Steve Thompson will preside, and Todd's nephews will act as pallbearers, Brent Sherburne, Nate Sherburne, Gavin Sherburne, Jake Waugh, Daniel Oakes and Matthew Oakes. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred and can be made in Todd's honor to: LLS; 1711 Broadway Street NE; Minneapolis, MN 55413.

Harold and Virginia (Moen) Oakes celebrated the birth of their son, Todd Michael Oakes, on September 3, 1960. Todd was the sixth of seven children, and he loved growing up in Spring Grove. As a teenager, Todd had three main interests: academics, athletics and faith. Todd excelled in each of these areas. He was confirmed at Trinity Lutheran Church, and was very active in their youth programs. Todd was named Salutatorian for his graduating class. He also was a dedicated athlete. Todd lettered in football, basketball and baseball, but baseball was always his favorite. T.O. made the varsity team when he was only a 7th grader. His love and dedication for the game shaped Todd's life.

During his senior year of high school, Todd began dating a classmate, Terri Sherburne. Todd and Terri shared many of the same values, and their love quickly blossomed. They dated throughout college and exchanged wedding vows at Trinity Lutheran Church in Spring Grove on June 5, 1982. Todd and Terri were blessed with a happy marriage and three wonderful sons, Tyler, TJ and Tanner. T.O. passed on his strong values, unwavering faith, love for the outdoors and passion for baseball to each of his boys.

After graduating from high school, Todd received a baseball scholarship to attend Waldorf College in Iowa. He later transferred to the University of Nebraska where he finished out his collegiate career as a Cornhusker. Todd earned his Bachelor's Degree in Education which helped him later as a coach. After college, Todd was drafted as a pitcher for the San Francisco Giants. He played in the minor leagues for four years before pursuing his passion for coaching. Todd spent 12 years coaching for the Giant's organization.

During the off-season, Todd, Terri and the boys would always head back home to spend time with family in Minnesota. So when Todd was offered the job of Assistant Coach for the University of Minnesota's baseball team in 1998, he jumped at the opportunity. Todd coached many talented players throughout the years, and he cherished the friendships he made. Todd has a profound impact on his players' lives both on and off the field. T.O. led by example and was a wonderful mentor and coach to many.

Todd loved being back in Minnesota with his family. They settled in Jordan, and the Oakes family quickly became part of the small town community. Todd helped develop Legion Baseball when his boys were on the team. He was also an active member at Hope Lutheran Church. Todd loved spending time outdoors and being amongst nature. He enjoyed camping trips to Lanesboro with his family. He taught his boys how to hunt and fish, and they took many memorable hunting trips together over the years.

Todd had many hobbies, but the biggest passions in life were faith, family and friends. When Todd was diagnosed with leukemia four years ago he needed his faith, family and friends more than ever. Todd always said "Never Give Up. Never Give In." and this was his motto throughout his battle with cancer. Even during his own struggles, Todd was always thinking of others and following his servant's heart. Todd was on the Board of Directors for LLS and raised funds that were used for cancer research. Todd's caring bridge entries were so inspirational that he decided to publish a book based on them. Todd's courage, patience, determination and humble outlook was an inspiration to all.

Todd will be deeply missed and remembered always by his wife, Terri; sons, Tyler, TJ and Tanner; siblings, DuWayne (Julie) Oakes, Jerald (Pat) Oakes, Darlene Oakes, Gloria (Jon) Speltz; sister-in-law, Donna Oakes; mother-in-law, Joan Sherburne; brothers-in-law, Mike (Carol) Sherburne and Kim (Doris) Sherburne; doctor and guardian angel, Erica Warlick; other loving relatives, many wonderful friends and countless players who were inspired by T.O..

There to greet Todd in Heaven are his parents, Harold and Virginia; siblings, Karen Oakes and Russell Oakes; father-in-law, Don Sherburne.

Terri and boys, we are heart broken by the passing of Todd. He was such a good and decent man who has impacted the lives of everyone he came in contact with in his too short life. I can only imagine the grief you must all feel. Todd is with his Lord and no longer has to suffer the indignities of this horrible disease. We all hope to one day be reunited with him in heaven. He has shown us the way . Love, the Conway's

I was involved with a Bible study group when Todd first became ill. We all put Todd's name down as a prayer request from Eileen Canakes and started to pray for Todd. As for me, I continued to pray for Todd right on through the third time Todd became ill. When he was well, I stopped praying for him and then when I heard he was sick again, I prayed for him every morning. It was like he was a part of my family even though I had never met him. When I would get the news that he was well again, my heart jumped for joy. I heard wonderful things about him and what a kind and loving Christian man he was. God has called him home.

Todd Oakes is leaving a legacy that cannot be duplicated. He taught us how to live and be followers of Christ without preaching. He did not push his faith on anyone but after a discussion with Todd one felt invigorated and renewed. God bless you Terri and sons for you have had the benefit of living with a great Christian that affected scores of people. I have always felt close to Todd although I only was able to spend time with him infrequently. My deepest sympathy as you go through these difficult times.

There are not too many pitching coaches who have thrown perfect games. Todd Oakes did. For all of us. Mr. Oakes won the game and now he will be always be 'safe at home'. ~ ~ ~ All of the words in the definition of 'compassion' speak fully of Mr. Oakes. His biggest plus was that he was full of purpose. He was brilliant in showing us all 'what we should be'. ~ ~ ~ Well done, Mr. Oakes. Forever Rest In Peace.

Terri and boys, where do I start? I had the good fortune of becoming a teacher and head football and baseball coach at Spring Grove in 1976. Early that first summer I meet with one of the young athletes and asked if about another young athlete by the name of Todd Oakes, his response Was ; You mean "Turtle". I asked; why do you call him that? His answer, because he is slow! Well, I never timed Todd in the forty yard dash, but I can tell this , he was 4.4 from the neck up (and he wasn't, that slow either. Todd was very SPECIAL, very athletic, super intelligent, humble and just a beautiful human being. I can stil recall his growth and development as a person and an athlete. From being quite, shy and reserved to standing up on stage at the senior homecoming skit singing "Go grease Lightning". with all of his other teammates. On to college, married, to his beautiful wife Terriwith the Giants organization. When Todd got into coaching I knew he found his calling. When the job opened up at the U of M I also knew he had found his baseball home. Todd touched so many lives and especially mine. He will be missed but NEVER FORGOTTEN

!!!! To Terri,Tyler, Tanner and Tj and a dog named Slider I can only hope you find comfort in knowing he suffers no more and in the eternal love of our Lord
With sorrow and love and admiration for you and your family.

My sincerest condolences to both the Oakes and Sherburne families. Although I know Todd is pain free and in a better place, it is hard to have him gone from this world. He was such an exceptional person, yet so humble. Some people wish their whole life to meet their hero. I got to spend almost everyday of the first 18 years of my life playing sports along side of my hero. No matter how tough the opponent, we knew we had Todd on our team. I recall one game when we were playing in a 13 year old and under tournament in LaCrosse. We played an all-star team from the Twin Cities. They were laughing at us before the game calling us country hicks because we did not have uniforms. Then Todd took the mound, and a few innings later they were getting worried. Seven innings later they couldn't believe what just had happened to them. So many great memories with Todd and Terri as classmates. I hope the Lord's peace and all the great memories of Todd comforts you all. Todd definitely lives on in your three sons. They are a great testimony to your parenting and values.

I just learned about Todd's death on June 21 from Harold Kenow, former principal of Walther Lutheran Junior High in Maplewood, Minnesota. I remember Todd very well from when he was a student at Walther in grades 7, 8, and 9. He was in the Walther Class of 1974 and his sister Juli was in the class of 1977. I was on the faculty of Walther part time where I taught religion, chorus, etc. part time from 1968 to 1980 because I was assistant pastor of Gethsemane Lutheran Church in Maplewood. Todd was one of my students.

I am in the process of writing a book about when I was at Gethsemane and Walther and have completed Chapter 10. Todd and Juli are named in Chapter 11. Now that I know about Todd's death and his career from Harold Kenow, I will be adding Harold's memories of Todd and his father to that chapter, plus some information from things I have learned about Todd by searching the internet.

The items of this book are documents which can be attached to an email and sent out to those who want to read/print/forward them. They are free of charge.

Thus, if anyone connected with Todd (his parents, immediate family, Juli, and others) would like to receive these documents feel free to let me know and I'll be glad to do so.

God's richest blessings to you and yours!

Cordially in Christ,

Pastor Roger M. Goetz
