

Conrad "Connie" Juelke, 90, Bismarck, died December 31, 2014 in Bismarck. A memorial service will be held at 10:30 a.m., Friday, June 19, at McCabe United Methodist Church, Bismarck, with Reverend Jenny Hallenbeck officiating. Burial will be at the North Dakota Veterans Cemetery, Mandan.

Connie was born on April 1, 1924, in Oakes, ND to Oscar and Velna (Johnson) Juelke. He graduated from Oakes High School, enlisted in the Navy and served as a torpedo man in Norfolk, VA, until WWII ended. Connie played minor league professional and semi-professional baseball from 1946-1958. He married Gladys Goodrich of Monango, ND on May 31, 1948, in Muskegon, MI, and graduated from Ellendale State College in 1951. The couple returned to North Dakota in 1951 where he taught and coached over 30 years at Plaza, Kenmare, Mandan and Bismarck. He later retired to Mesa, AZ where he enjoyed golf and sunny weather. He was a lifelong member of the United Methodist Church.

Connie is survived by his long time companion Betty Dockrey; brother Robert Juelke; daughters Terry, Barbara, Jackie, Mary Beth and Connie and their husbands; eleven grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren and many friends. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Gladys; his parents; sister Doris King; and four brothers James F, Allan O, Donald M, and LeRoy Juelke.
