

Funeral Rites Conducted For Luke Hendrix

Final rites for Luke Hendrix, professional baseball player with the Danville Leafs in the mid-thirties, were conducted Sunday in Lawrenceburg, Tenn.

Hendrix, husband of the former Pearl Hudson of Danville, died of a heart attack at his home in Lawrenceburg Saturday.

A catcher, Hendrix joined the local team in 1934 after appearing here as the only unbearded member of the touring House of David team. He became quite popular with local fans.

In recent years he had operated a food vending business in Lawrenceburg.

In addition to his wife, Hendrix is survived by three children, Luke, Jr., Marinda and Mark.

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Sun, May 17, 2015