

Mystic Funeral Home

Al H. Severinsen

(November 9, 1944 - January 27, 2015)

Al Severinsen, 70, of Mystic, husband of 50 years to Jane (Soller) Severinsen died unexpectedly, January 27, 2015. Born in Brooklyn, NY in 1944, he attended Baldwin High School in Baldwin, NY and was class of 1962. Following high school, Al enrolled at Wagner University. While enrolled in college, Al was offered a professional baseball contract with the Chicago Cubs Major League baseball organization. He eventually went on to play for the Baltimore Orioles in 1969, in which the team participated in the baseball World Series that current year. After his professional baseball career ended with the San Diego Padres in 1971, Al stayed active in teaching the game he loved by coaching players from all ages from youth level to college. Al also continued to be involved in teaching baseball at clinics through the Major Baseball League Association. Al retired from Nassau County in 2003 as a Plant Supervisor. Al continued his work history of 11 years at Foxwoods as a Warehouse Manager. Al has lived in Mystic, Ct since 2003. Al is survived by his wife/ best friend and high school sweetheart Jane. He leaves behind three children, seven grandchildren and other beloved family members. Al enjoyed spending his free time with his wife, kids, and grandchildren. His family will receive friends Tuesday, February 3, 2015 from 5-6 pm followed by a service at 6:00 pm at the Mystic Funeral Home Route 1 (51 Williams Ave.) Mystic.

Back