Richard J. Bianchi

(April 20, 1952 - November 19, 2016)

 Richard J. Bianchi, 64, of Hamilton Township, NJ, passed away on Saturday, November 19, 2016 at home surrounded by his loving family.

Born in Trenton, NJ, he was a life-long Trenton area resident.

He retired in 2010 after thirty-five years from the Iron Workers and Riggers Union Local 68, Hamilton.

Richard served in the New Jersey National Guards. He was drafted in 1970 by the New York Yankees and went on to play with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He had a great love of sports, and enjoyed carrying on good conversation with family and friends, but most of all enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren.

Son of the late Giulio and Julia Angelini Bianchi; brother of the late Armand Bianchi; grandfather of the late Isabella Gonzalez; he is survived by his loving wife Cathleen DiMatteo Bianchi; his children, Richard L. Bianchi and his wife Stephanie; Kristin Hulak and her fiancée Demetrious Gonzales, Gillian Ortiz and her husband Aureo, and Jocelyn Doyle-Bianchi; his last surviving aunt Eleanor Picardi; a brother-in-law, Louis DiMatteo; five grandchildren, Christian, Shane, Lucas, Sophia and Gabriella; and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews cousins, and friends.

Calling hours for family and friends will be on Friday Evening, from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Brenna Funeral Home, Immordino Chapel, 1799 Klockner Road, Hamilton.

Funeral services and burial in Our Lady of Lourdes Cemetery will be private.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made in his name to Saint Jude's Research Hospital, 501 Saint Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.
