Arthur Orrante

Resident of San Bruno

Arthur Orrante joined his loving wife Loretta in heaven on April 27, 2015.

He is survived by his adoring children, Marcie (Tate) Elmore, Marc (Teresa) Orrante, Maria Orrante, Mindy (John) Runyan, Marlene Orrante and Marjorie Orrante.

He will be missed by his loving grandchildren, Robert and Daniel Kennedy, Shaun and Brianne Orrante and Whitney Mayfield.

Art was predeceased by his parents, Mary and Julio Orrante, his sister Lillian (Lou) Anzore, Dolores Orrante and brother Junior Orrante and granddaughter Lindsay Orrante.

Art graduated from Sacred Heart, class of '56. He was Student Body President and an ace pitcher for The Fighting Irish. He was drafted to the Brooklyn Dodgers Farm Team.

Art's career started at Pacific Bell, then to Lucca's Delicatessen on Chestnut St. Following that he was a UPS driver. Then while in the Police Department, Art worked as a teller and plain clothes security at the Bank of America on Chestnut St.

Art joined the San Francisco Police Department in 1967 and was assigned to Park Station. He was also assigned to Central Station and walked the beat on San Francisco Fisherman's Wharf. He proudly served his city for 31 years until his retirement in 1998.

Art will be missed by his dogs Nellie and Tober and their walks at Fort Funston and The Polo Fields.

He leaves behind his brother, Edward Orrante, sisters-in-law Carol (Charles) Hoenisch, Betty (Walter) Puccini and many nieces and nephews.

Art enjoyed home projects. He was a craftsman and a perfectionist. He worked tirelessly even through his illness to be sure the house was perfect for his family.

A Memorial Mass celebrating Arthur's life will be offered on Saturday, May 16, 2015 at 10:30 am at St. Robert's Church, Oak and Crystal Springs Rd, San Bruno.

Donations in Art's name can be made to the Wounded Warriors, Peninsula Humane Society or The American Cancer Society.
