

ANTHONY T. MARHEFKA

Funeral services for Anthony T. (Tony) Marhefka, prominently known former professional baseball player and local bank employe, was held from the home of his brother-in-law, former County Commissioner Walter Brosious, 236 South Diamond Street, at 10:00 this morning, with solemn mass of requiem in St. Stephen's Church, West Chestnut Street.

Throughout Sunday afternoon and evening hundreds of friends of the lamented former baseball star visited the Brosious residence to offer sympathy to the survivors and for the purpose of viewing the features of the lamented young man. Flowers, including many tributes from friends in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Marhefka resided at the time he was stricken ill, and from former baseball associates, encircled the bier.

Following the religious rites, burial was in the family plot in St. Stanislaus' Cemetery. A firing squad from Blyler-Quinn Post, V. F. W., fired a final salute over the grave of the deceased at the cemetery, in tribute to his service to the nation as a member of the United States Navy during the World War.
