

BALL PLAYER DIES

ERNEST (PIGGEY) REGENOLD COLLAPSES ON DIAMOND.

Former Americus Boy Dies on Way to Hospital at Springfield, Ill. N

While pitching for Springfield in the Three-I league Saturday, at Springfield, Ernest (Piggey) Regenold fell to the ground and died on the way to a hospital. Heart trouble was the cause, according to meager reports reaching Emporia.

Regenold was an Americus boy who pitched for Emporia several years. He went from Emporia to the Southwestern league for two seasons, had a try-out with the Kansas City Blues and for the last two years has been in the Three-I league. He still was the property of the Kansas City club and it is understood the Kansas City club was planning to recall him as his showing of late had been excellent.

Regenold was about 24 years old and bore an excellent reputation, both on and off the ball field. His body will be returned to Americus for burial.

Clipped By:

timcopeland

Thu, Jun 11, 2015