
Thomas Nathaniel Spears.

Thomas "Hoss" Nathaniel Spears LEXINGTON - Thomas Nathaniel Spears, 91, passed away Saturday, March 28, 2015. Born May 11, 1923 in Greenbriar, Arkansas, he was the son of the late Virgil and Ruth Ward Spears. A Celebration of Life service will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, March 30, 2015 at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church with burial to follow in the church cemetery with the Rev. Dr. Pat Riddle and the Rev. Dr. Mark Bredholdt officiating. The family will receive friends following the service in the church social hall. Mr. Spears was a faithful member of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church for 50 years. He served his country in WWII, and retired from the Postal Service. He never met a stranger. Mr. Spears loved reminiscing his days of playing Minor League Baseball. He was an outdoorsman who loved to hunt and fish. He loved his family and friends with a kind, generous heart. Mr. Spears is survived by his wife of 70 years, Marjorie Oxner Spears, children, Mike Spears (Nancy) of Leesville, Pam Steele (Pete) of Lexington, and Elaine Taylor (Lee) of Lexington, grandchildren, Jason Spears (Danielle), Brian Spears (Laura), Sandra Spears, and Ryan Shirley, brothers, Virgil Spears of Dover, Arkansas, and Jim Spears of Atmore, Alabama, along with numerous great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank the staff of Agape Hospice House. Memorials may be made to the St. Stephen's Lutheran Church Building Fund. Barr-Price.com (803)356-4411

Funeral HomeBarr-Price Funeral Home and Crematorium

609 Northwood Road Lexington, SC 29071
(803) 356-4411

Published in The State on Mar. 29, 2015
