

DAVID EDWIN LAMB.

Basehor Farmer Formerly Was a Blues Catcher.

David Edwin Lamb, 56, a former professional baseball player, collapsed and died yesterday at his farm at Basehor. He was a checker at the Wilson Packing company ten years before he retired in January.

Besides playing as a catcher with the Kansas City Blues from 1920 to 1923 he was with various teams in at least six minor leagues in his 16-year baseball career. From the Blues he went to Toledo.

Mr. Lamb was a member of the Adams-Peterson-Switala post, V. F. W. He was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Minnie M. Lamb of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Robert Marlor, Skellytown, Tex., and Mrs. Goldie Thoyts, Borger, Tex., and four brothers, Floyd Lamb, Archie Lamb, Rollin Lamb, and Roy Lamb, and a stepbrother, Robert Higgins, Hampton, N. Y.

Clipped By:

timcopeland
Sat, May 9, 2015