

John A. Brogan

John A. Brogan, 74, of Bridgewater, NJ passed away peacefully on September 16, 2016. John was born on July 12, 1942 in Glen Ridge, NJ. He has lived in Bridgewater for the past 7 years and previously was a 38-year resident of Whippany. John proudly attended St. Benedict's Prep School in Newark. He received his undergraduate degree from Georgetown University and his law degree from Seton Hall University. John was a retired partner of Walder, Hayden, and Brogan in Roseland, NJ.

John was an avid baseball fan. He played minor league baseball for the Washington Senators. John was a passionate NY Yankees fan, he would watch every game and attended the Yankees Fantasy Camp. He coached his son's teams growing up and went to all of his grandchildren's games. John enjoyed playing board games and cards. Most of all he loved spending time with his family, especially at the beaches of Avalon.

John is survived by his wife of 49 years, Jill Brogan (nee Shannon), his children, Patrick Brogan and wife Danielle, James Brogan and wife Susan, Jennifer O'Hara and husband Patrick, and Lori McCarron and husband Timothy; his grandchildren, Jack, Shannon, Megan, Hannah, Declan, Ellie, Owen, Steven, Cate, and William, and his brother, Peter. He was predeceased by his parents, Albert and Marie.

A Celebration of John's Life will include a memorial visitation on Monday, September 19, 2016 from 4-8pm at the William J. Leber Funeral Home, 15 Furnace Road (Corner of Rt. 206), Chester, NJ (908) 879-3090. A 10:30am funeral mass will be held on Tuesday, September 20 at St. Lawrence Church in Chester, NJ. Interment will follow at Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Chester. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Community Care Hospice, 110 W. End Ave, Somerville, NJ 08876 or St. Benedict's Prep, 520 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd, Newark, NJ 07102.
