

Raymond D. Baer

October 28, 1927 - April 17, 2018

---

MILLERSBURG- Raymond Daniel 'Mim' Baer passed away at the Stonebridge Health and Rehabilitation Center on April 17, 2018. He was 90 years old.

Born October 29, 1927 to James Alvin Baer and Sallie Hoy Baer, Mim was a lifetime resident of Millersburg except for the six years he spent playing minor league baseball in Wisconsin, Kansas, Iowa, Arkansas, and other midwestern states for the Chicago White Sox organization.

From evening and weekend games played on sandlot fields in Dauphin and Northumberland counties for Millersburg 'town teams' to the innings he spent threading curve balls past up-and-coming big leaguers like Hank Aaron in Wisconsin and North Dakota, baseball was a lifelong passion that Mim successfully passed along to his children and grandchildren.

Mim served his community for many years as a member of the Millersburg Borough Council and for several years served as that body's president. He was a member and lay leader of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and, later, of David's Community Bible Church. His resolute but soft-spoken faith extended as well into the solid integrity that characterized his life at work, in the home, and among his fellow Christians in these two Millersburg churches, which were the spiritual home that Mim shared with his wife Dorothy and the family they raised.

After bringing his baseball bride back to Millersburg from northern Wisconsin, Mim drove truck for nearly forty years as an employee of Millersburg's Nelson's Express.

Raymond was preceded in death by his sister Catherine Potter and his brother Allen Baer. He is survived by his wife Dorothy, daughters Aimee McKone and Karen Baer, sons David and Jonathan Baer, seven grand-children, and six great-grandchildren. They join his friends in remembering him for reliability, a superb work ethic, frugality, respect, and the usually unspoken conviction that to let people down or otherwise fail to run out a ground ball was 'bush league' and simply unacceptable.

After years of suffering in the wake of a debilitating stroke, Mim now has his 'stuff' back and rejoices safely in the arms of Jesus.

Mim's viewing and funeral will be held at David's Community Bible Church on Saturday, April 21 at 10:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m., respectively. Arrangements by Hoover-Boyer Funeral Home in Millersburg. To sign the guest book go to www.hbfuneralhomes.com

So many cherished memories of this great man & his faith. He never wavered or compromised for anyone or anything! I had the privilege of knowing him all my life from the Lutheran Church days (where we both attended) the years of serving Millersburg Town Council with my father, then onto Davids Church. Then the last few months to be able to greet & speak to him at my work, I feel so blessed to have seen his earthly life full circle. To Dorothy & Raymond, I say "....thank you for giving to the Lord I have a life that was changed...". Your commitment to the Lord and each other was incredible and is forever etched in my mind as the example to follow!
