DECATUR -- Larry F. Unser, 64, of suburban St. Louis, MO, passed peacefully in the arms of Jesus on Oct. 10, 2014, due to pancreatic cancer.

Born Sept. 15, 1950, in Decatur, IL, Larry graduated from the University of Missouri at St. Louis; Marian University, class of 1972 (Indianapolis, IN); and St. Teresa High School, class of 1968 (Decatur, IL).

Larry worked as an accountant, controller, certified personal financial advisor and, later, was self-employed in trucking. Larry signed with professional baseball, the Cleveland Indians in 1972 and San Francisco Giants in 1974, and, later, was an avid softball team participant.

Larry is survived by a son, C. Drew Unser of Los Angeles, CA; and also survived by his siblings Jan (Unser) Mangold of Pleasanton, CA; Al J. Unser of Tulsa, OK; Del Unser of Scottsdale, AZ; Colleen (Unser) Plebanek of Ocean Isle Beach, NC; Elaine (Unser) Mills of Peoria, IL; Jerry Unser of Little Rock, AR; and Annette Unser of St. Louis, MO.

He loved children and will be missed by his three stepdaughters Brandi Frye, Dusti Braschler and Audi Williams, and their children.

Larry was preceded in death by his mother and father, Ruth and Al Unser, and his beloved Aunt Lena Unser, all of Decatur, IL.

Larry's family and friends will celebrate his life during an open house from 5 to 8 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 5, at Decatur Conference Center.

In lieu of flowers, per Larry's wishes, memorials should be made to a charity of your choice.
