

Malcolm Luther McKeithan Jr

September 19, 1929 - September 3, 2015

Malcolm Luther McKeithan, Jr., 85, beloved husband of Nora Garner McKeithan, died Thursday, September 3, 2015.

Born in Raeford, NC, he was the son of the late Malcolm Luther McKeithan, Sr. and Almena Anderson McKeithan.

Mr. McKeithan was a 1959 graduate of Presbyterian College. Malcolm enjoyed a 5-year professional baseball career before starting a 35-year career with Liberty Life Insurance Company. He was an avid quail and deer hunter who took great joy in hunting with his family and friends. Malcolm and Nora also enjoyed being members of the Lamplighter's Dance Club. Malcolm and Nora have been members of First Presbyterian Church of Greenville since 1959.

Surviving, in addition to his wife of 56 years are daughter, Ann McKeithan Coker (Gerry); son, Mac McKeithan (Jackie); and grandchildren, Ray Coker, Megan Coker and Malcolm McKeithan, IV.

A graveside service will be held Monday, September 7, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at Woodlawn Memorial Park. Visitation will follow at the graveside.

Memorials may be made in Malcolm's honor to McCall Hospice House, 1836 W. Georgia Rd., Simpsonville, SC 29680.

“ Mrs. McKeithan, Ann, Mac, and family,
My sincere condolences on the passing of Mr. McKeithan or as we affectionately referred to him at Liberty Life, as Mr. Mac.
I have many fond memories of working, talking baseball, and hunting with Mr. Mac. I also loved hearing stories of him growing up in Raeford.

He was a true friend, a great man, and someone I will always have the highest respect.

All of you are in our thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely,
Jack & Janet Cann
