

Charles Meekins

November 6, 1937 - February 13, 2015

Charles Meekins, "Chuck," was born in 1937 to Benjamin Franklin and Hilda (Morton) Meekins in New York City, NY. His love for baseball led him to pitch in the Minor Leagues for the Spokane Indians, Eugene Emeralds, and the Plainview Ponies. He traveled across the country playing ball for 2 years before meeting his bride, Joan Krabbe. In 1960, they were married in California. They had 4 children there before heading east and landing in Minnesota, which they called home for 38 years.

Anyone who knows Charles knows integrity was a virtue he held high, and his work reflected this quality. He spent his years in Minnesota doing construction-building houses, but his true calling was raising cattle and spending time on their land. His dogs Jake, Red, Bandit, Pebbles, and Buckshot, to name a few, were his constant companions and could always be found riding in the front seat of his truck. During the last 5 years, Chuck kindly offered his land up to his friends as a cow/calf pasture. He took great enjoyment counting calves and watching his friends work the cattle.

He is survived by his wife Joan of 55 years; his son John (Tina) Meekins of Port Orchard WA; daughters Lisa (Butch) Meyer of Andover MN, Lois (Chad) Croonquist of Alexandria MN, and Heidi (Scott) Dolezal of Deer Creek, MN; and grandkids Tiffany (Greg) Korver, Lesli Meekins, Jackson (Lexi) Meekins, Hunter and Logan Croonquist, Cody, Katie, and Colton Dolezal, and Alicia and Emily Meyer. Of course he would not want us to forget his grand-dogs Otis, Ruby, Penny, Paisley, and Spikey.

There will be a gathering of friends and family later this spring out at the farm, per Chuck's wishes.
