John E. Miller, Jr

Jul. 22, 1923 ~ Sept.21, 2015

Resident of Moraga

John E. Miller of Moraga, died September 21, 2015 at the age of 92. Known as "Jack" by his friends, Jack was born on July 22, 1923 in Philadelphia, PA, the son of John E. Miller Sr. and Olga D. Miller. Jack graduated from West Chester State College, earned a Master's Degree from the University of Pennsylvania, and had Naval Officers training at Ursinus College. Jack served in the Navy at the rank of Lieutenant JG during the war in the Pacific.

Jack taught physical education and math at Helms Junior High School in San Pablo for over 34 years; he officiated high school football, basketball and baseball as well as college baseball. Jack was a minor league first baseman in the Philadelphia Athletics organization. He loved all sports, particularly baseball. Jack was an avid reader, loved playing bridge at the Moraga Royale, taking Barney on walks, and most of all Jack greatly enjoyed his family and friends.

He was survived by his wife of 64 years, Barbara; sister Bebe Hansell of Bromall, PA, sons John (Billie) of Manteca and Mike (Fran) of Moraga, along with 3 grandchildren.
