“ Joann...My sincere condolences and prayers to you and your family. I saw the obit in the newspaper. Although I really didn't know Jerry, seeing it reminded me of you and our past relationship at FMC and the good times we had. I didn't realize how long you and Jerry were married.

Your old friend, Judy Costigan

“ Dear Joann,

My husband and I were so very sad to hear about Jerry's passing. My cousin, Marcia, sent me the notice. I have such special memories of Jerry. I even remember when you two were married. All of our extended Olesko family enjoyed spending time with him and you. He was very kind and fun to be with. I now live in South Carolina and will not be able to pay my respects in person but please know I send my deep condolences.

Most Sincerely,

Cathy Olesko Pacholek (Chet and Emilie's daughter)

“ Joann, my friend, I'm so sorry for your loss. At least Jerry is in a better place and isn't suffering any longer. I'm sorry I won't be able to come to the visitation, but I'm living up North now and have several appointments I can't cancel. My prayers are with you and your family!

Love and Hugs, Jan Jurcyk
