

In Memory of Terry Lynn Clapp

April 3, 1951 - April 25, 2016

Terry Lynn Clapp, 65, of Liberty passed away on Monday, April 25, 2016 at his home.

Terry was a beloved husband, father, and grandfather. He spent 35+ years in car and commercial sales where he was a mentor and friend to many. Anybody who knew Terry, knew of his love for baseball, and his dream of playing baseball was realized when he had the opportunity to play for the Baltimore Orioles shortly after High School. His love of baseball, however, was second place to the love he had for his family, especially his grandkids, and his greatest joy was seeing those he loved happy. One of his favorite pastimes combined his love of baseball and watching his grandsons play the game, as well as watching his son, Tyler, coaching.

A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, April 30 at 11:00 a.m. at Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church, 4400 Alamance Church Road, Liberty, with Cecil Mock officiating. The family will receive friends on Friday evening from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Loflin Funeral Home in Liberty.

He was preceded in death by his father, L.G. Clapp.

Surviving is his high school sweetheart and wife of 45 years, Wynell O'Briant Clapp; sons, Casey Clapp and his wife, Nikoda of Asheboro and Tyler Clapp and his wife, Megan of Liberty; mother, Nell Roberson Clapp; and grandchildren, Carson, Caleb, Carmen, Riley and Boston.

At the family's request, in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Southwest Randolph High School - Baseball Program, 1641 Hopewell Friends Road, Asheboro, NC 27205.
