

Gwathmey Rites Held In Cemetery

WEST POINT, Aug. 24.—(A)—Funeral services for William Gwathmey, 27, who was drowned Sunday in the Pamunkey river, were held this afternoon at 3 at the grave at Burlington, near Aylett.

Pallbearers were Robert S. Brenaman, John Coffee, Charles H. Denmead, R. C. Benschoten, C. L. Woodward, and Tarrant Fox.

Gwathmey, former manager of the Chesapeake baseball club, was drowned when he fell from a boat while returning to West Point after a week-end pleasure trip.

He had played baseball in the International, Middle Atlantic and Piedmont leagues.
