

Dr. Ross Fenno Of Montpelier Is Dead at 59

MONTPELIER - Dr. Ross V. Fenno, 59, of 7 Merrill Ter., a chiropractor in Montpelier and St. Johnsbury, died Thursday morning at the Central Vermont Hospital in Berlin after a short

He played minor league baseball for the Northern League in Claremont, N.H., and later on a farm team in Fargo, N.D. He was a former football official for the Vermont Headmasters

He was a member of St.
Augustine Church, past president of the Vermont Chiropractic Association, and a member and past exalted ruler of Montpelier Elks Lodge 924.

He was born in Bellows Falls Nov. 16, 1915, the son of Arthur and Beatrice (Sanborn) Fenno.

He attended the Towle High School in Newport, N.H., and the Austin-Cate Preparatory School in Stratford, N.H.

He attended the University of New Hampshire, graduated from the Lincoln Chiropractic College in Indianapolis, Inc.

He served in the U.S. Army from 1942 to 1946 in the from 1942 to 1946 in the European Theater. He married Marilyn Whitcomb Nov. 27, 1947.

He leaves his wife, three daughters, Shelley Jean Fenno and Gwen Leigh Fenno of Montpelier and Lynn Patrice Fenno, a student at the University of New Hampshire; two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Borges of Bellows Falls and Mrs. Mickey (Beverly) Haskins of Manchester. (Beverly) Haskins of Manchester, several nieces and nephews.
The funeral Mass will be celebrated Saturday at 11 a.m. in St. Augustine Church. Friends may call at the Barber and Lanier Funeral Home, 139 Main St., today from 7 to 9 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Silver Towers Camp for Exceptional Children, in care of Montpelier Elks Lodge 924

Ross Fenno obit

Clipped By:

timcopeland Fri, Dec 1, 2017

