

J G. HOLLAND

EDGEFIELD — Joseph G. Holland, 72, died yesterday at a hospital in Augusta, Ga., where he underwent an operation two weeks ago.

Mr. Holland retired as postmaster at Edgefield last January after more than 30 years of service. A graduate of Clemson College, he was a star athlete and later played professional baseball. He was past president of the South Carolina Camellia Association and frequently acted as judge at camellia shows in this and other states. He developed a number of new varieties of camellias and his gardens annually attract many visitors. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Edgefield. He married Miss Christine Tompwho survives. Other survivors include three daughters, Mrs. H. H. Walker of Edgefield, Mrs. George Holtzlander of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Nick Scavens Edgefield, and four children. Funeral services were conducted at 3 p. m. today at the graveside in Eastview Cemetery by the Rev. B. W. Thomason.

Joseph Holland obit

Clipped By:

jackmo77 Tue, May 31, 2016