

Scoop Graeff, Ex-Baseball Player, Dies

Reginald G. (Scoop) Graeff, 48, Mohnton R. 1, Berks County, former minor league baseball player, died yesterday afternoon in Reading Hospital.

A plumber for a West Reading contractor, Graeff was stricken while working at the Brandywine Heights Joint High School at Topton. He was taken to the office of Dr. Warren L. Trexler, Topton, for treatment, and ordered transferred to the hospital. He was pronounced dead on arrival in the Topton Community ambulance.

During his baseball career, Graeff, one of the heaviest hitters in the area, played the outfield for Chambersburg in the Blue Ridge League, Topton in the old Lehigh Valley League, West Lawn in the Berks League, New Holland in the Tri-County League, and Newmanstown in the Lebanon Valley League.

Funeral arrangements will be completed by the S. F. Seidel Funeral Home in Reading.
