Newspapers

(Continued From Page 1)

pendent team which for years played in the Chestnut Street Auditorium.

He coached the Tech teams in 1920-21 and '25 and earlier teams at Central High.

He was a graduate of the 1913 class of Central High School.

With McCord on the Independent team were Horace G. Geisel, now principal at John Harris High School; Harry (Rabbit) Rote, coach at Harris; Gordon Ford, David McConnell and Edward A. Wallower. Advisors of the team were the late George W. McIlhenny and the late Clarence E. (Doc) Weber, former city treasurer.

Native of City

Harry Isett McCord was born November 4, 1892 in Harrisburg. His father, C. H. McCord, is a retired passenger conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Estelle Branstetter McCord; his father, a brother, Boyd C., a stepson, Bruce F. Branstetter, Germantown, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. E. C. Walton, New Cumberland.

Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Charles C. Baker funeral parlors, Third and Maclay streets, the Rev. Harold G. Mc-Millan, Trinity Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the East Harrisburg Cemetery. Friends may call at the Baker parlors Monday after 7 p. m.