

Louis Briganti Dies at 46

HORNELL -- Louis N. Briganti, 46, of 23 McDougall Avenue, Hornell, a prominent former player and manager in minor league baseball, died Monday night (Nov. 12, 1962) at St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, where he had in Hornell, where he had been a patient for two weeks. He was a native of New York City and played minor league baseball before serving in the U.S. Army during World War II in the Pacific and in Australia.

He came to Hornell in 1946 as the manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates farm team, a part of the former PONY League. He chose to make his home in Hornell after retiring from baseball.

He was one of the organizers of the former junior baseball league in Hornell and was active for several years in aiding young base-ball players to get started. he had served as a scout for several major league clubs and managed the Hornell team in the former Tribune League from 1957-60.

At the time of his death he was employed as a sales-man for a national brewery. Surviving are his wife, Mrs.

Muriel Weber Briganti: three sons, Frank and Louis Jr., and sons, Frank and Lovis Jr., and Michale Briganti, all at home; his father Frank A. Briganti of Miami, Fla.; three sisters, Mrs. Rose Monti, Mrs. Lena Logrosso and Miss Marie Briganti, all of the Bronx.

The body is at Curry's Funeral Home. A praver service will be held there at 8:30 a.m. Thursdav. followed by solemn requiem high Mass in St. Ann's Church at 9 a.m. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery at Hornell. The Rosary will be recited at 1 the funeral home at 8 p.m. Wednesday. Wednesday.

Louis Briganti

Clipped By:

timcopeland Wed, Nov 29, 2017

