

Ball Player on Running Board Killed in Crash Near O'Fallon

Elmer Poss, 24-year-old outfielder of the Paducah, Ky., professional baseball team of the Kentucky-Indiana-Tennessee League, was fatally injured yesterday in an automobile accident near O'Fallon, Ill. He resided at Lebanon, Ill.

Riding on the running board of a small coupe, Poss was injured when the vehicle collided with an automobile driven by John Peterson, 28, of O'Fallon, on U.S. Highway 50. Poss suffered a fractured skull.

Peterson was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Belleville, suffering from cuts and bruises. Everett Keck, 28, of Lebanon, driver of the coupe, suffered slight injuries in the crash. Neither driver was injured critically.

Elmer Poss obit

Clipped By:

timcopeland Sat, Dec 9, 2017

