

Philip J. Ambrose, 84

Philip J. Ambrose of Vineland, a former semi-professional baseball player, died Tuesday in Atlantic City. He was 84.

Born in Shenandoah, Pa., he resided in Vineland most of his life.

After the Depression, he was an engineer at the Vineland Municipal Electric Plant and prior to retiring in 1967, was a self-employed plumbing contractor for more than 40 years.

Phil Ambrose

In the early 1930s, he played minor league baseball for the Winston-Salem (N.C.) Twins. He then played semi-professional baseball throughout South Jersey for 26 years, most of the time with Wene Chicks of Vineland.

He was a member of the North Italy Club and a trustee of the Menantico Gunning Club. He also was a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church and a member of the Master Plumbers Association. Surviving are his wife, Clorinda (Morello); five sons, Philip D. of Vineland; G. Thomas of Ocean City; John of St. Thomas, Ontario, Canada; Paul of Milmay, and Joseph of Turnersville; a daughter, Barbara Orlandini of Vineland; 41 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

A Mass of Christian Burial and Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Friday in Sacred Heart Church.

Burial will be in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Friends will be received from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday and after 9:30 a.m. Friday in the Rone Funeral Chapel.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Sacred Heart Church, Vineland, or the American Heart Association.
