

Hyman Goldstein

Hyman Goldstein, 91, 768 W., South St., died Monday in Carlisle Hospital. He was born in Portage,

He was born in Portage, son of the late A.B. and Rebecca Berger Goldstein, was a graduate of Portage High School, attended Conway Hall, was a 1912 graduate of Dickinson College and a 1915 graduate of Dickinson School of Law.

He was a practicing attorney at 31 W. High St. for 60 years, was noted for representing the defense of Bessie Jones, late local madam, and received an honorary degree from Dickinson School of Law in

He played quarterback for Dickinson College's football team and was elected to lits Hall of Fame, played Tri-State pro baseball for the Phillies in 1913 at Atlantic City, and was scheduled for induction into the South Central Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in Shippensburg on Thursday.

He was a Navy veteran of

He was a Navy veteran of World War I, a member of Elks Lodge, a trustee of Dean Hitchler Fund, former president and dean of Cumberland County Bar Association, and senior member of the board of directors of Allenberry Playhouse.

He is survived by his wife, Edna Crumm Goldstein; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Hoffman-Roth Funeral Home, 219 N. Hanover St. with the Rev. James J. Ferguson officiating, Burial will be in Westminster Cemetery. There will be no viewing.

There will be no viewing.

Memorian contributions may be made to Dickinson
School of Law.

Hyman Goldstein obit 2

Clipped By:

jackmo77 Tue, Jan 9, 2018

