

Raymond C. Alden

WHEATON — A memorial service was held at Hughes United Methodist Church in Wheaton for Raymond C. Alden, a retired Vitro Corporation employee, who founded and for many years served as a commissioner of the Montgomery County Baseball Umpires Association.

Mr. Alden died on Jan. 16, 1985. Born in Gilman, Ia., he was 71.

During World War II he served in the U.S. Air Corps in the China, Burma, India Theater of Operations.

In addition to his career at Vitro, he retired from the A & P Tea Company in 1968. He also worked for a time for a railroad in Minnesota and was an umpire for professional organized baseball for four years. In 1947 he umpired in the Eastern Shore Minor League.

An avid outdoorsman, archer and camper, Mr. Alden's interests also included model trains, reading and genealogy.

Mr. Alden is survived by his wife of 38 years, the former Sally Louise Brown, a native of Denton; a son, Raymond Jr.; a daughter, Sally; and a sister, Rena Weidner.
