

James Edward Yeagle

ASHLAND — James Edward Yeagle, 63, of 1337 Ohio 603 died Tuesday afternoon at home.

He was born Jan. 15, 1926, in Ashland to John E. and Edith Fox Yeagle, both deceased.  $^{\mbox{\tiny N}}$

Mr. Yeagle was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Mansfield and a World War II U.S. Army veteran. He played minor league baseball and was self-employed with Yeagle Construction Co.

Surviving are four daughters, Ellen Hannahs of Longwood, Fla., and Jamie Johnson, Carol Lambert and Mrs. Edward (Susan) Bissmeyer, all of Florida; two sons, James M. of Florida and Tom E. of Ashland; eight grandchildren; four brothers, John C. of Ashland, Robert P. of Bountiful, Utah, George P. of Lakewood, Colo., and Richard J. of Hartland, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. David (Elizabeth) Rose of Ashland, Mrs. Max (Lucille) Frey of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Roger (Marjorie) Wissler of Mansfield.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Virginia Arnold.

Calling hours will be Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Gilbert-Van Hove Funeral Home. Services will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Mansfield, by the Rev. Robert Dendinger. Burial will be in Ashland Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Mary's Catholic Church, 1630 Ashland Road, Mansfield, 44905, or to the American Heart Association.

James Yeagle obit

Clipped By:

timcopeland Tue, Dec 5, 2017

